Here we have another rant regarding Mx-Bones and their antics, what did they do now?

what is Deo known for doing to ex friends of theirs?

Stealing their characters and stalking them of course!

And on this rant in fact I wanted to talk about this character, who isn't recent but is pretty damn fucked up and I'll tell you why.

FUCKING??? HACKER

I don't even know where to start with this degenerate of a character seriously.

Does anyone remember the 2014 Callout done by Deo's ex best friend?

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1IjhDU0GfW33Y8jHq50enYoG-xQhAyL-UHugnHJFrAo8/edit?usp=sharing

If you haven't read it I'd suggest checking it out, though do note it's about 55 pages long, but if anything I'll be willing to summarize what happens in it.

Basically, Deo's best friend known as "Foo" at the time.
(AKA Foo-exe/Fooexe on Tumblr) decides that she wants to break off a ship with one of Deo's characters, which causes Deo to pull off one of the biggest temper tantrums imaginable threatening suicide multiple times and being very aggressive towards Foo because of this, aside from that episode it shows how Deo really treated her behind the Tumblr scene, with lots of manipulating, obsession, possessiveness and abuse.

This document was published when Deo was in the middle of their FNAF fame, yet before Purple Guy came into the scene.

This literally caused a lot of Deo's friends to leave them, and to be specific mostly people who were friends with both them and Foo, that being the majority of them.

You might be thinking, shit why is this any relevant with character theft?

Well it is and I'll be showing you why.

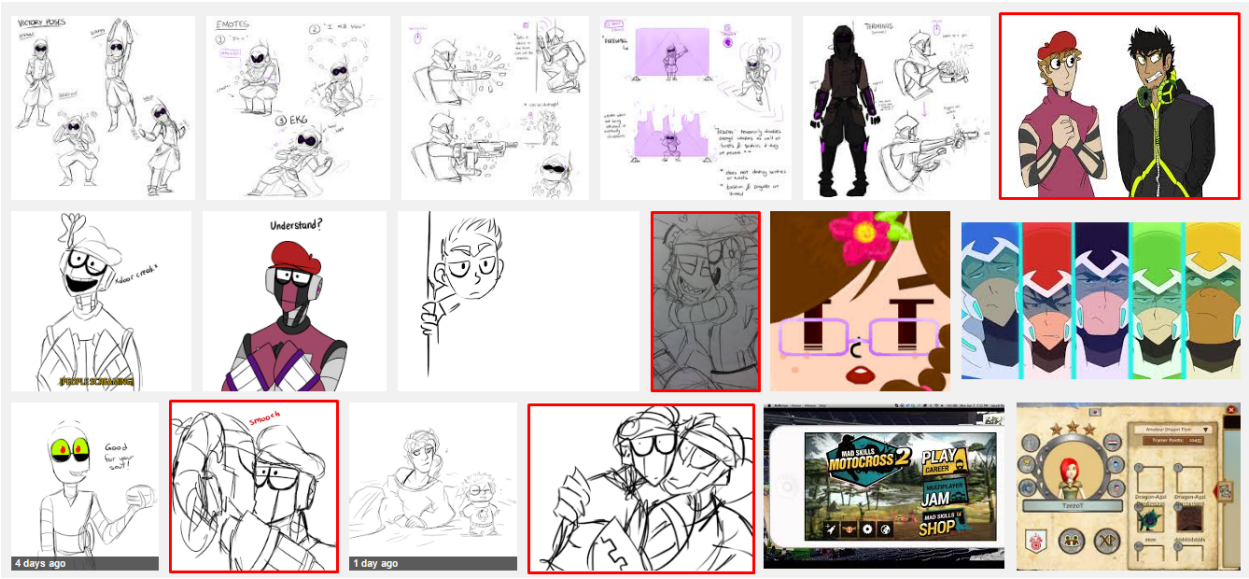
I won't only be talking about character theft, cause the "Hacker" character has a lot more behind him than just a petty design copy.

So what happens when you go on Google and look up "Mx-Bones Hacker" ??



THEIR HACKER DOESN'T EVEN SHOW UP

But another character does right along with Artman.

I'd also like to bring to everyone's attention that These three here?

Are also linked to the ones I highlighted in red.

So not only do these results pop up, but it's the MAJORITY of the results that show up, and if you scroll there's literally more of that character and Artman.

So who is this guy snuggling Artman?

Could it be one of Deo's old characters they simply revamped?

Alright, remember I mentioned Deo's ex best friend?

As much as I understand Deo no longer uses the name "Rebornica" it was the URL they had in 2014

So lets Google "Hacker Rebornica"

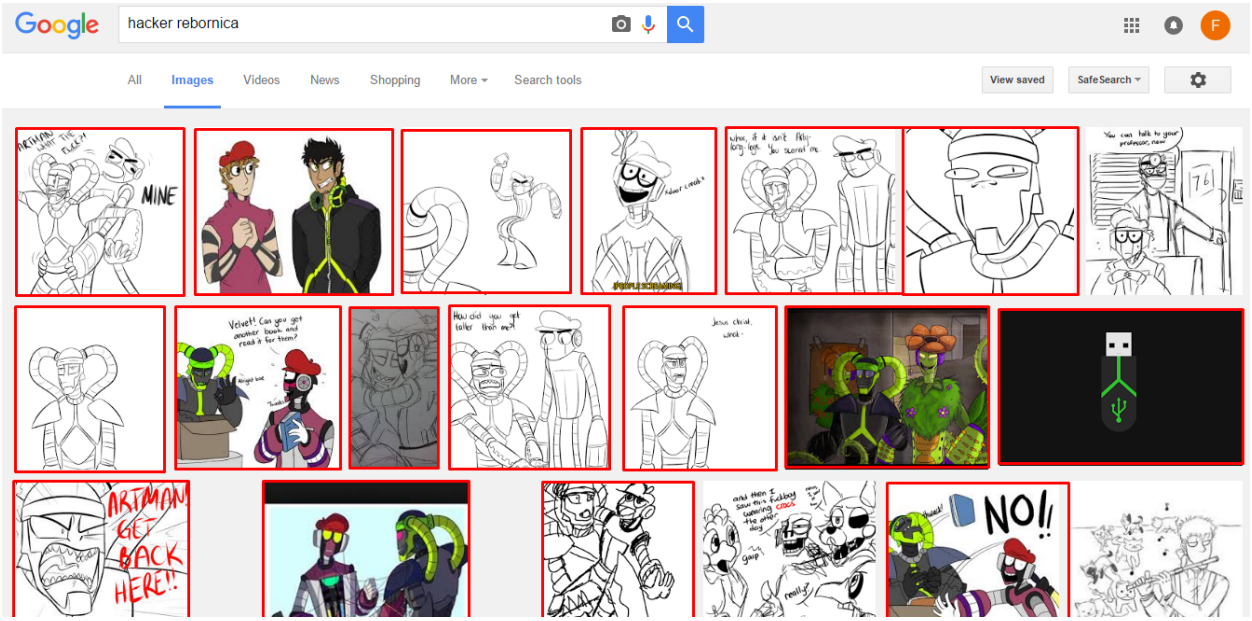
So the only difference between the two google searches we just did aside from the URL we used for Deo

IS THAT LITERALLY ALL THAT COMES UP IS ARTMAN AND THAT CHARACTER



There are LITERALLY only 3 posts that are unrelated Enough fucking around in Google though, who the FUCK is this here character anyway?

ARTMANS FUCKING BOYFRIEND

You’re probably thinking no it can’t fucking be, Artman isn’t in a relationship now is he??

He’s just a cute artsy sinner uwu !!

Yeah no believe it or not Artman used to be in a relationship with this robot!

Guess what his fucking name is if you haven't already (It's not Velvet as that was his pet name in the relationship)

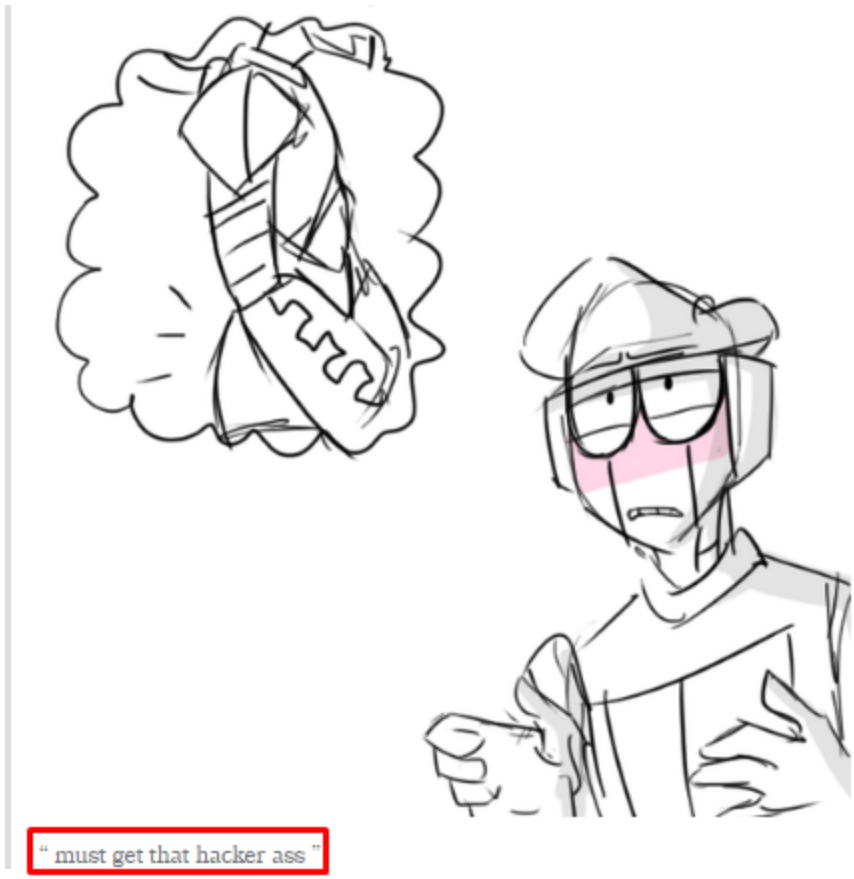
mx-bones:



Oh my it's fucking Hacker??

Then maybe this is just a revamp of him yeah? he was just Deo's old character they decided to remake completely?

Let's look at some of the captions of drawings Deo has made of Hacker alright.

Just in case some of you weren't convinced on Artman and Hacker were dating

Has Artman had any other relationships beside Hacker?

What did we learn? Hacker is Artman's now ex-boyfriend owned by Deo's now ex-best friend.

But why isn't there any art by Foo?? You just showed Deo's art maybe she didn't even design Hacker-

People have literally asked the same question to Foo, now known by her real name Nikky, the same thing.

http://toxyy.tumblr.com/post/140232976322/but-is-hacker-even-your-oc

For those who don't know, Toxyy = Fooexe

But wait a minute, Toxyy's blog got made on December 2015?

That makes no fucking sense right?

Well let me explain what happened.

When Foo/Nikky deleted her blog, her last URL on her old blog was Gliittery foo-exe:

> I really like the new Coldplay song and thought I'd draw something with my biggest OTP;;
>
> Ahh they're so cute;;

gliittery-deactivated20151208

If you ask anyone that used to follow her, the deletion happened without closure and nobody knew about the new blog until the time around February and March.

You once again will probably wonder why in the fuck this is of any relevance.

Lets look at this post she made in February, literally if you go through her archive, February is the month where she starts talking to her old friends and followers again, and ironically on the same month, she started "Hacker Week" AKA a week dedicated to Hacker.

A promo would be nice maybe uh
It's Nik btw yes hi you know the one with Toxin and Hacker and another 50 robots I don't even remember the names of that person
yeah
18 NOTES
So I mean it's #HackerWeek now so
You can send Hacker asks here, send art requests involving Hacker?? ask anything TBH and if you wanna draw fanart of him just put it under the HackerWeek tag but yeah here we go B] This also includes Diego (Human Hacker) yOU KNOW WHAT since this OC Week thing intrigues me stnikky:
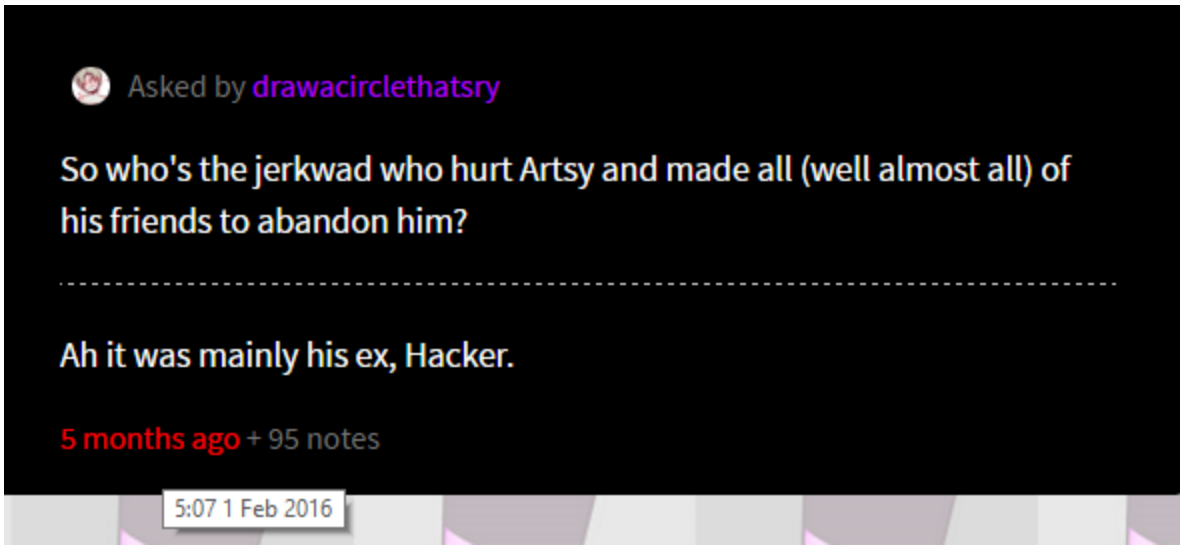
starting Monday its Hacker Week
ITS SHARK WEEK DKDKLFLV
I GUESS I MEAN I'll answer asks about Hacker answer asks as Hacker if you send him any here??
I'll draw him and stuff yeah!
#HACKERWEEK BEGINS

Guess what.



Asked by drawacirclethatsry
So who's the jerkwad who hurt Artsy and made all (well almost all) of his friends to abandon him?
Ah it was mainly his ex, Hacker.

Deo's posts about Hacker started in February, the literal first day of the month, when nobody knew if Nikky had remade or not therefore meaning that Deo, knowing she was gone, saw the opportunity to take Hacker and did it.

Sneaky bastard aren't they.

This is where the 2014 Callout becomes most relevant.

Remember when I mentioned that it caused most of Deo's friends to cut ties with them?

Replace Artsy with Deo and that's the way Deo paints their ex best friend.

So Deo's Hacker = Foo/Nikky

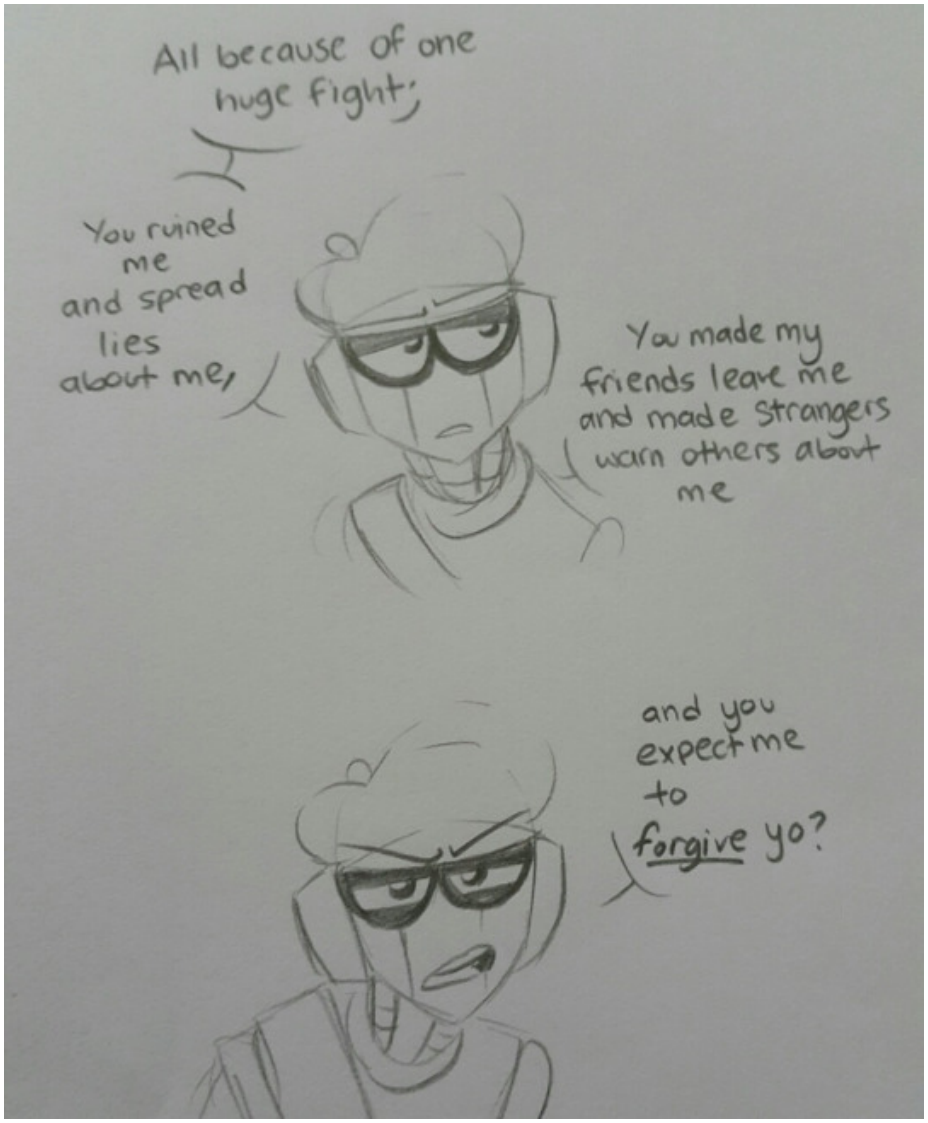
Want more context to this??

http://mx-bones.tumblr.com/post/133788517499

Lets take a look at this comic.

Note: This comic was made way after Deo and Nik stopped talking, funny enough proving how they're still not over them, I'll mention things about that later though.

This was also before Hacker got announced as one of Deo's characters.



All because of one huge fight;
You ruined me and spread lies about me,
You made my friends leave me and made strangers warn others about me and you expect me to forgive yo?

“You ruined me and spread lies about me, you made my friends leave me and strangers warn others about me”

Literally what happened with the 2014 Callout, but the only thing here is that the claims against them were true, but of course Deo would never admit something like that.

If this panel wasn’t interesting, let’s go to the second one.

I used to date this guy… he was a hacker.. and a..gangster.
but.. H-He was amazing. He was everything to me.
I loved him so much but I messed up and..
He didn't tell me that what I did was wrong and now he and all of my friends hate me and so does everyone..

“ I used to date this guy… He was a hacker .. and a .. gangster”

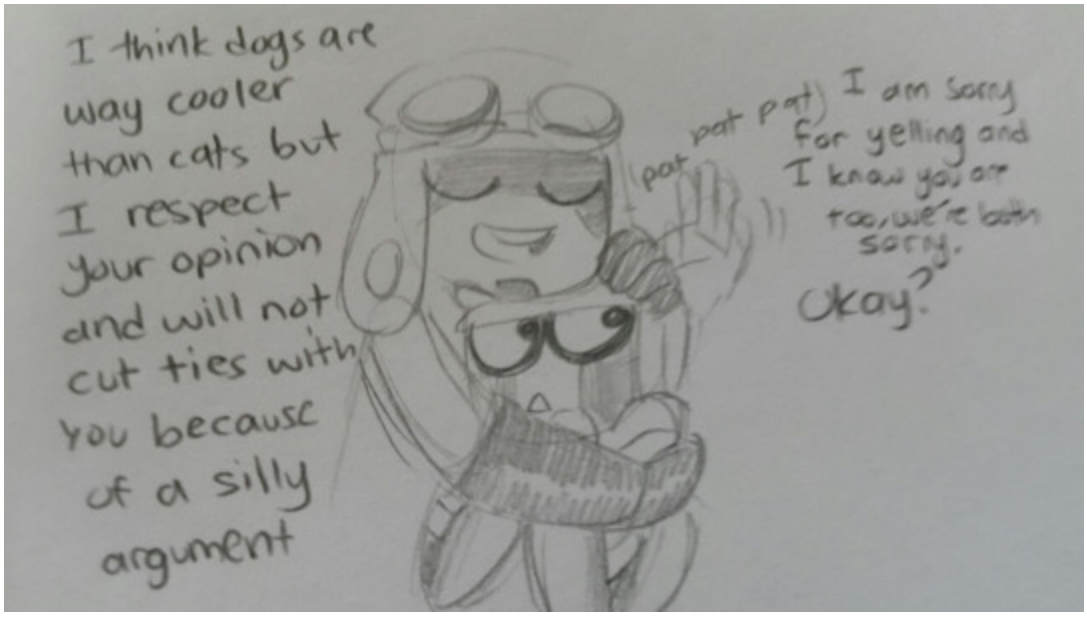
“I messed up and he didn’t tell me that what I did was wrong and now all my friends hate me and so does everyone”

If you read the 2014 Callout, this would make more sense, but its literally claiming Nikky never told them what they were doing was wrong before making the callout, but if you read the callout she does multiple times in the conversations and screenshots.

Why did I highlight the gangster part?

Because the original Hacker is part of a robot gang.

This is another panel of the comic, where Pilot gives a demonstration about how everything should have been handled as their relationship is more important than a fight



I think dogs are way cooler than cats but I respect your opinion and will not cut ties with you because of a silly argument pat pat pat
I am sorry for yelling and I know you are too, we're both sorry.
Okay?

“ I respect your opinion and will not cut ties with you because of a silly argument”

Wasn’t the argument in the callout the reason Deo and Nik cut ties?

Pretty sure this is enough proof to show you that Deo’s Hacker’s personality is supposed to reflect their ex best friend’s but in a negative way.

I’d love to point out how Deo and Nik haven’t talked in pretty much 2 years now, but Deo still goes on about her.

That’s pretty fucking creepy.

How does Hacker look?? I got curious af Also, he hurt Artsy That bich Haven't gotten a solid, proper design for him yet but I'll just say he looks similar to Countdown when it comes to fangs and colour scheme
5 months ago + 109 notes

In February, Deo's Hacker's design was described as "Similar to Countdown when it comes to fangs and color scheme"

Lets look at Countdown real fast?

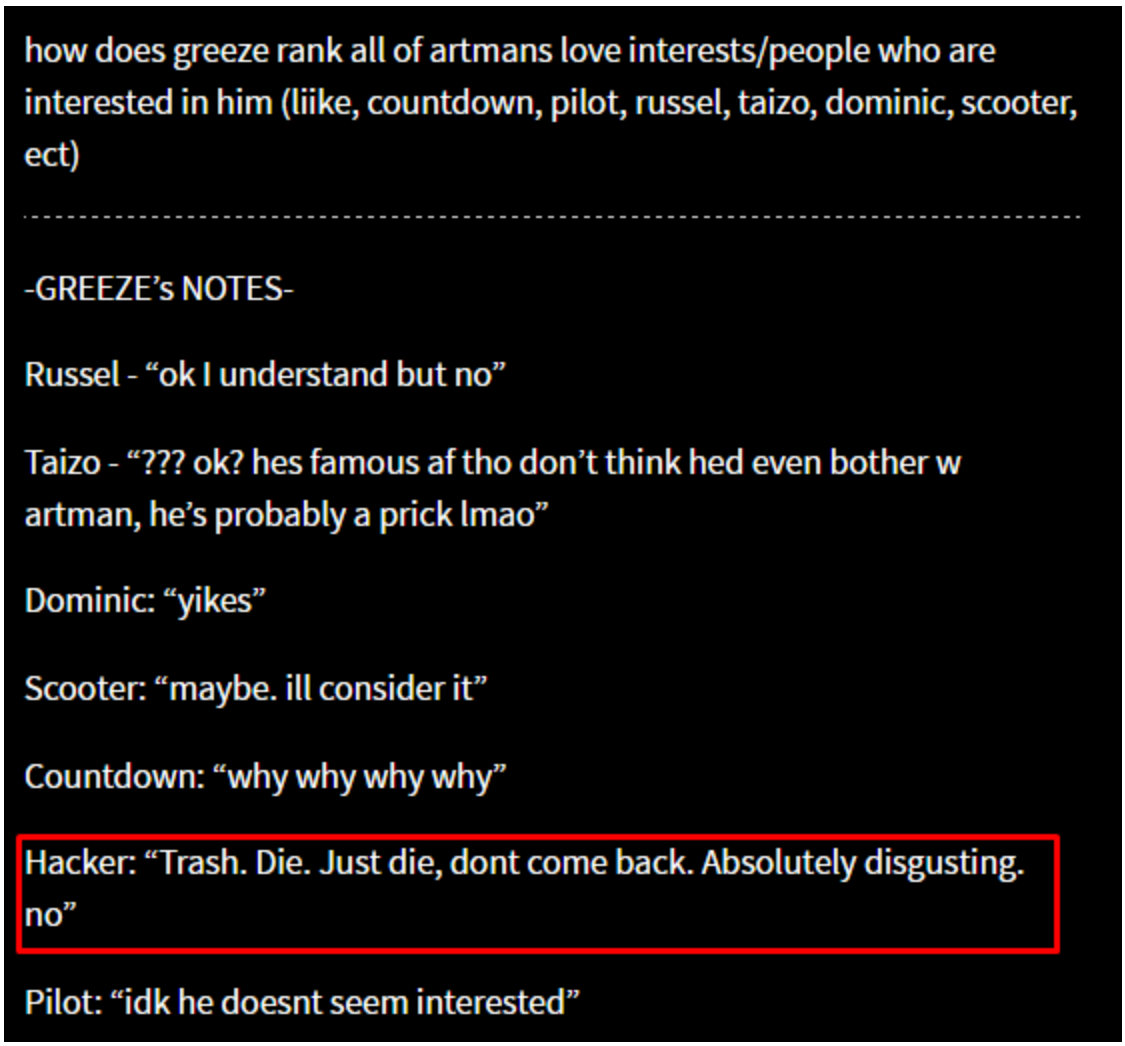
Dark color scheme, sharp teeth… Let's look at Nik's Hacker

Dark color scheme, sharp teeth, same upside down Y on his chest, overall edgy and sharp looking, the chin pieces, pretty much very similar to Countdown only lime green.

Asked by allythefangirl101
Why do I want Greeze and artsy to go up to this hacker or whoever is spreading lies about artsy and just greeze gets ready to punch this guy and artman stops him and artman punches this hacker instead
OHHHHHH
well fun fact, Greeze and Hacker were friends before. but then Greeze sent death threats to Hacker via net after what Hacker did to Artsy and he pretty much packed his bags and left the city he was in
5 months ago + 117 notes

“He pretty much packed his bags and left the city he was in”
Keep in mind this is during the time Deo thought Nik left Tumblr.

Do I even need to talk about this one.



how does greeze rank all of artmans love interests/people who are interested in him (liike, countdown, pilot, russel, taizo, dominic, scooter, ect)
-GREEZE's NOTES-
Russel - "ok I understand but no"
Taizo - "??? ok? hes famous af tho don't think hed even bother w artman, he's probably a prick lmao"
Dominic: "yikes"
Scooter: "maybe. ill consider it"
Countdown: "why why why why"
Hacker: "Trash. Die. Just die, dont come back. Absolutely disgusting. no"
Pilot: "idk he doesnt seem interested"

Let's fast forward to April when Deo's Hacker got designed.

Wasn’t he based off Countdown?

The chin pieces are more like Hacker’s, plus.. Countdown ain’t lime green.

Aside from the original Hacker though, you know who Deo’s Hacker looks a lot like?

FUCKING LUCIO FROM OVERWATCH???

You're probably thinking, hey but Overwatch came out in May, right? While Deo's Hacker's design came out in April.

Yeah but

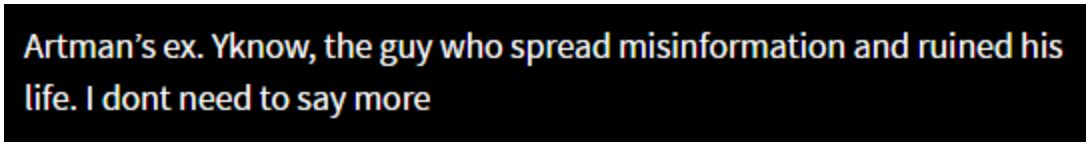
Also, can we please talk about the caption for Deo's Hacker



Yeah ok.

Maybe Nik's Hacker is a knockoff of Countdown though?

Wanna know something about Countdown though???

rebornica:

> Countdown

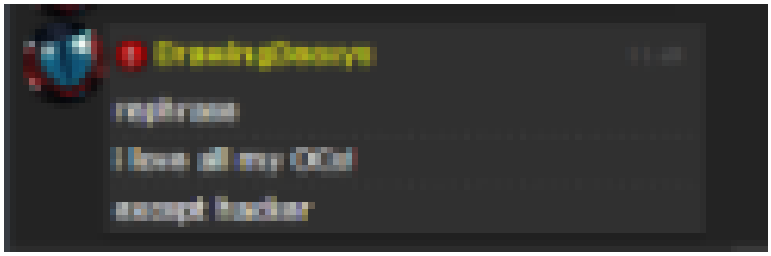
Oh nice he's not even entirely Deo's, plus Hacker was literally made 2 years ago.



Unfortunately this one's blurry and can be seen in this screenshot below

For those who can't read it says

"I love all my OCs!"
"Except Hacker"

???? He ain't even yours now is he?

As a last thing though, let's jump back to February, this is a conversation Deo had 10 days after mentioning they'd be using Hacker and during the time Nik's blog wasn't public

This was on DeviantArt, though.

Deo here talks about the 2014 Callout (it was popular around New Years too so it's 2014/2015 to be exact)

You are not?
Then why did they believe that you are?
This is all confusing!
Reply
Deoxyrebornicleic Feb 14, 2016 Hobbyist Digital Artist
Because people believe lies on the internet.
These people were unfortunately lied to and they believed said lies and well look at where we are.
It's not really that confusing, someone spread lies and people immediately believed them without ever considering the fact that Photoshop has existed since the 90s and screenshots can easily be faked and look like it hasn't.

Not exactly.. there are people who use those terms and they ARE not those.
and well it's a thing with popularity. Once you're popular, you will be watched from every corner and one simple mistake and it'll be taken out of context, exaggerated so you can be the scum of the earth.

Basically after months of working with my (now ex) best friend, they just basically say " hey i dont want this anymore " like.. imagine building up months and months of stories and work and drawings and all that so you could do plans together, but suddenly the other person is like " nah lets just throw that all away "

That's why I'm distant from people or I'm just drawing stuff right now ;V;!!

If you read the Callout, the reason why Deo and Nik cut ties is way far off from just not wanting to do things with them anymore or because they didn't contribute much, but because Nik didn't want a ship anymore that her and Deo would never use anyway, which ended up with Deo freaking out on Nik which was the last straw that caused Nik to cut ties with them after years of their shit.

Deo did 70% of the work?

How come do they literally keep stalking Nik's blog and copying her OCs?

Care for me to list a bunch of OCs that are very similar to Nik's that came first??

Nik's Commedia and Tragedia with Deo's Dusk and Dawn (Twin jesters with comedy/tragedy masks)

(note Nik's had a robot run circus since 2014)

This is only the tip of the iceberg of things they have tried to copy from their ex best friend

It’s been 2 years and Deo still stalks her.

Don’t you think that’s pretty fucked up?
